

Student Placement Volunteers

About the role:

You will be providing face-to-face support through delivering HUK's therapeutic 1-2-1 in-home support program for people impacted by hoarding behaviour who may be facing a variety of situations including legal, financial, psychological, and discriminatory abuse/neglect. You will be working with trained colleagues to alleviate housing, benefits, mental health, and other problems experienced by HUK's participants.

The role consists of:

- Volunteering at HUK a minimum of one and a half-hour each week in accordance with program completion, preferably two years.
- Maintain a caseload of at least one participant.
- Taking responsibility for ongoing casework as required.
- Complying with HUK's case-management procedures, training program and other relevant policies and procedures.

We are looking for:

- Trainee Counsellors/Psychotherapists currently studying on a BACP, UKCP or BABCP accredited course.
- Trainee Counselling/Clinical/Forensic psychologist currently studying on BPS accredited doctoral courses.
- Qualified Counsellors/Psychotherapists that are accredited or working towards accreditation with the BACP, UKCP or BABCP
- Student or individual membership with the BACP, UKCP, BABCP and or HCPC
- Qualified Clinical/Counselling/Forensic Psychologists with HCPC registration.
- The ability to work sensitively and professionally with people facing difficult circumstances.
- A commitment to volunteering with us for one year.
- A commitment to the values and ethos of HUK.

Training on hoarding behaviour, advocacy and other relevant areas will be provided. If you are interested, please email info@hoardinguk.org an application pack or apply directly at CharityJob.co.uk. Please get in touch on 020 3239 1600 if you have any questions.
