

Social Media Volunteer

About the role:

You will be providing support with HoardingUK social media presence as part of a hard-working and dedicated team to raise an awareness of the issues faced by people impacted by hoarding behaviour who may be facing a variety of situations. You will be working with trained colleagues to make a difference and alleviate housing, benefits, mental health, and other problems experienced by HUK's participants.

The role consists of:

- Volunteering at HUK a minimum of one half-day (4 hours) each week.
- Regularly update social media sites with HUK announcements.
- Update social media with open volunteer roles.
- Create content for social media to engage community.
- Update online community with HUK events.
- Complying with HUK's procedures, training program and other relevant policies and procedures.

We are looking for:

- Commitment to HoardingUK values and ethos and be a motivated team member.
- Knowledge and experience of engaging on social media platforms including Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn
- Ability to think creatively when sharing content.
- Complying with HUK's procedures, training program and other relevant policies and procedures.
- Good communication skills and ability to interact professionally online.

Training on hoarding behaviour, advocacy and other relevant areas will be provided. If you are interested, please email info@hoardinguk.org an application pack or apply directly at CharityJob.co.uk. Please get in touch on 020 3239 1600 if you have any questions.
