

Trainer Information

Megan Karnes (Overview of Hoarding Training) Director HoardingUK, Director Mental Health Consultancy UK, Counsellor BA (Hons), Dip. Clinical Supervision and Consultancy, Prim. Cert CBT, National Advocacy Qualification, Independent Mental Health Advocate (IMHA), Independent Capacity Advocate (IMCA), Registered MBACP

Lee Markwick (Retired Fire Officer & NHS Mental Health & Safety Officer) – Trainer Lee has a very pragmatic approach to challenging the perception, and managing the risk of hoarding and clutter. He has worked with many Partner Agencies on making people safer inside and outside their homes.

Julie Wilson (Housing Officer Training) – Trainer HoardingUK Julie led Hoarding Awareness Week on behalf of Pan London Hoarding Taskforce (PLHT). Julie has worked directly with people with hoarding behaviour, provided training for internal staff/contractors at Optivo (formerly Amicus Horizon) for several years, and led on creating Optivo's hoarding procedure. Julie has presented at Housemark's Tenancy Sustainability and Anti-social Behaviour Clubs as well as to Fire And Rescue Services.

Aims

All of our training is designed to be an educational, interactive and empowering working to positively impact participant's active client work and improve outcomes for people who hoard as well as the professionals and others who engage with them.

Target Audience

Our courses are largely designed for professionals who work with people who hoard. Practitioners are encouraged bring their current hoarding related work to sessions which ensures the day is integrated into practice. Our Recovery College and Support Group development training engage people with hoarding behaviour.
