

Counselling Placement Volunteers

About the role

You will be providing face-to-face support in participant's homes, delivering HoardingUK's one-to-one therapeutic program. HoardingUK supports individuals who may be facing a variety of situations including legal, financial, psychological and discriminatory abuse and neglect in relation to hoarding behaviours.

The role consists of:-

- Volunteering at HoardingUK a minimum of 1.5 hours per week in accordance with the program completion
- Maintaining a caseload of at least one participant
- Taking responsibility for ongoing casework as required
- Complying with HUK's case-management procedures, training program and other relevant policies and procedures.

We are looking for:-

- Trainee counsellors/psychotherapists currently studying on a CPCAB Level 4 or 5 in therapeutic counselling
- Trainee counselling/clinical/forensic psychologist currently studying on a BPS accredited doctoral course
- Qualified counsellors/psychotherapists that are accredited or working towards accreditation with the BACP, UKCP or BABCP
- Students or individual membership with the BACP, UKCP, BABCP and or HCPC
- Qualified clinical/counselling/forensic psychologists with an HCPC registration
- Individuals with the ability to work sensitively and professionally with people facing difficult circumstances
- A commitment to volunteering with us for the program course
- This position is on-site in individuals' homes
- A commitment to values and ethos of HUK

Training on hoarding behaviour, advocacy and other relevant areas will be provided. If you are interested, please email info@hoardinguk.org for an application pack or apply directly at Charityjob.co.uk. Please get in touch on 020 3239 1600 if you have any questions.
